

What documents are necessary when receiving products for further processing?

Processors must be able to review documents that clearly demonstrate that the product comes from an NOP-certified operation. The product must be controlled and properly labeled or identified and linked to a manifest, which shows the products are certified organic.

e-CFR